“ Hi, my name is Higinio Mendoza Junior and I'm so excited and grateful that I have the opportunity to open a World Transformation Movement Centre here in the beautiful city of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. I'm so thankful and mindful of connecting to the World Transformation Movement. It has been such a positive thing for me to not only implement in my life, but also in my family's life. I see the change that's coming in our society, and to me, and so I look forward to the future and growing.

I am from New York City, New York. I was born there. We migrated to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in the '70s. I am of Puerto Rican descent, I have Taíno Indian in my veins.

I am qualified with a specialised business degree in communication systems management. I also have a Bachelor's of Science and Information Technology that is also complemented with a Life Sciences certification. As well as a paralegal or a certified legal assistant—out of Duquesne University here in Pittsburgh, through the School of Leadership and Professional Advancement, I have obtained my General Practice of Law. Also I have some other certifications: Dell certified systems management. I am also certified as a business consultant and also human rights certified as well.

I see now that it's more important to end the human condition, than to have all the degrees, all the certifications, whether it's a PhD or a CLA or a MBA. That what's more important now is that we end in our society the human condition that has hindered us tremendously and embrace this and learn and share, because it will change the world as we know it. And so I'm excited. It gives us hope—there's just so many hopeless folks out there, there's nowhere to turn to. And here we have someone who has opened up the door to our lives now through the World Transformation Movement and Jeremy Griffith who has opened up to us freedom. And now we have the truth, the light of truth, and so we were coming out of that prison, out of that cave, that we need to come out of, and it starts with ourselves, that cave is within ourselves, that light within that once we can capture that and grasp it and follow it. The World Transformation Movement, it will change the society and humanity as a whole. And I look forward to it; I know that my children and our children's children will benefit from this. We are the pioneers of this and I'm excited for it!

Well, you know it is amazing to me to open up a book, and I've read my share of them, but to pick up *FREEDOM: The End Of The Human Condition, read it, and every time I pick up FREEDOM, the words from Jeremy, I'll catch a little bit more and it makes a little bit more sense. And then I say to myself, 'Well, where do I get bored with this?', or 'Where is this at?' I find some sort of something that I don't agree with, and I tell you, I haven't found it!

For someone like Jeremy to come forth and spend the years—because something like this isn't you know, hey, it's not instant coffee, it's just not made with a tea bag and swirling it around!— this took years of study and persistency, just the zeal to find the truth. And here he has unfolded to humanity an opportunity to find themselves. If you really want to be loved, if you want others to fall into place in a cooperative way, well I tell you, it changes everything, everything. And you know again, in a society that is searching, so many people have searched in church, maybe pursue an education, their love and guidance is money. And yet they fell short of really fulfilling their lives. But now with something like this, once they grasp the idea and tap into this source and the power that is with it... again, it is a life-changing situation for a person to open up. And I understand that a lot of folks probably won't initially grasp onto this. But eventually, as it catches on, and the momentum of the World Transformation Movement, eventually folks will come to it and understand that yes, this is the way and it is exciting! It gives hope where there was no hope. What were you looking for? If you were mindfully trying to look into that inner being, something like this really fulfills a person's life, and what a plus! I'm excited. It is a good time in our lives, and actually in our part of history, to tap into something like this and watch it grow, watch it grow. So this momentum is not a 'fly by night'. I think you can grasp onto a root that is the tree, and is going to flourish for generations to come. And so I'm grateful and excited for us. And hopefully it is in good time that we move forward with this so that we can touch a lot of lives with it.

Well, you know it is true that you know society has been seeking for something, an answer, whether it's an answer that would come in religion or whether it was an answer in the fulfillment of an education. They really seek on the outside, their search is on the outside. And as adults, after a certain age, we get kind get set in our ways, but we lost that paradise. Once we were children, and as we go through the channels of high school and education and then through our lives, becoming women and men, married and moving forward in our lives, we lose that utopia. And now we have a chance, and this is our chance to really learn how to change that. And I just know that in my life, I can't speak for anyone else, but I know in my life that in the short time I've spent reading and learning with staff and in the books that Jeremy has unfolded, that it seems to be and I know it is to be a positive thing that is being presented. And so again, exciting times for all of us! And with that, there is a world of gratitude to Jeremy and the staff that has really moved forward, to bring this out onto the world stage and that in itself is a seed that I'm looking for just to see how it comes back. I'm grateful for being part of such a wonderful organisation and I look forward to the future.

I look forward to opening up the World Transformation Center here in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, so that now I can share this vital information to others so they not only can change their lives but their children's lives and generations to come. I look forward to not only opening here but helping others throughout the States, maybe in other parts of the world, having them understand true freedom from the condition that has been hindering them throughout the ages. And so it is our duty, I believe, a duty of care, to tell others how they can also change and transform their lives in a way that has been denied to them for a long time. I look forward to talking with you all. Bye bye. ”
